

MFL Long Term Plan

Languages programmes of study: Key Stage 2 & 3

National curriculum in England

Purpose of study: Learning a foreign language is a liberation from insularity and provides an opening to other cultures. A high-quality languages education should foster pupils' curiosity and deepen their understanding of the world. The teaching should enable pupils to express their ideas and thoughts in another language and to understand and respond to its speakers, both in speech and in writing. It should also provide opportunities for them to communicate for practical purposes, learn new ways of thinking and read great literature in the original language. Language teaching should provide the foundation for learning further languages, equipping pupils to study and work in other countries.

Aims The national curriculum for languages aims to ensure that all pupils:

- understand and respond to spoken and written language from a variety of authentic sources
- speak with increasing confidence, fluency and spontaneity, finding ways of communicating what they want to say, including through discussion and asking questions, and continually improving the accuracy of their pronunciation and intonation
- can write at varying length, for different purposes and audiences, using the variety of grammatical structures that they have learnt
- discover and develop an appreciation of a range of writing in the language studied

Adapted Aim of St Joseph's

- To introduce learners to Spoken and Written Language through songs and video clips
- For learners to speak, repeat, respond to and interact with the target language through speech, rhyme, rhythm, movement and dance
- Where appropriate learners will use words in the target language to label pictures and engage in craft projects
- Learners will be introduced to stories from the target language
- Learners will learn about the culture, history and geography of countries that speak the target language through food tasting, craft, songs, music and dance
