

St Joseph's Specialist Trust, Cranleigh, Surrey

SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPIST
£32,276 - £38,379 (newly qualified) /
£49,021 - £54,671 (independent practitioner)

With an additional £1,000 Retention Bonus

Communicator, Life Enhancer, Supporter

A Speech & Language Therapist role at St Joseph's plans and delivers interventions. You will have a case load of around 18 students age 5-19, with severe social communication difficulties and complex learning disabilities, many with autism. With your compassion and guidance, you will help them achieve the greatest possible level of independence and communication skills relative to their complex needs and help prepare them for life beyond school or college.

No two days are the same. You will deliver therapy to students in small groups and on a one-to-one basis. Our department comprises a multi-disciplinary team of Occupational Therapists, Dramatherapist and Music Therapist and all supported by a team of Therapy Assistants. We have an embedded therapies approach in which we work in partnership alongside our education staff. This enables us to plan together and share best practice for the benefit of our students and offers invaluable therapy experience. Some of our students are residential.

This is a term time only role and we are open to flexibility. If you wish to work part time, we are open to discussion and will be prepared to seriously consider part time requests. The salary range for this role is based on 37 hours per week, 52 weeks a year. In practice, full time therapist hours are compressed into term time plus 5 in-service training days working each academic year (39 weeks).

If you are recruited, you will be required to complete Team Teach positive behaviour support training as part of your induction before employment. Physical and mental resilience are essential qualities for our staff.

You will:

- Devise, develop and implement therapy for individuals and small groups of students
- Manage your own caseload of students (approx. 18), setting targets for them on a termly basis
- Assess students on admission and for annual reviews
- Supervise the work of Therapy Assistants
- Be HCPC registered and belong to the RCSLT
- Be given regular supervision, mentoring and 1:1 support

Why St Joseph's? What we offer:-

+ Regular opportunities for specialist training and up-dating + £1,000 Retention bonus - £250 after 1 month, £250 after 1 year, £500 after 18 months at Trust + Life Insurance and Medical Cashplan + Team Teach positive behaviour support training, refreshed every years + 25 days holiday plus public holidays paid annually + Free hot lunch, prepared and cooked on site by our in-house team during term time + Induction programme + Employee assistance service (confidential, professional wellbeing and counselling 24/7 service) + Excellent network of support across the organisation including a team of Adult Mental Health First Aid and Occupational Health + Based on a beautiful 23 acre site on the edge of the Surrey Hills.

The salary range for this role is based on 37 hours per week, 52 weeks a year. In practice, therapist hours are compressed into term time only working (plus 5 In-service training days each academic year).

Own transport desirable due to the semi-rural location of the school.
